Brentwood Dog Park

General Information

The Brentwood Dog Park is located at 610 West Hanley Industrial Court in Hanley Park. The Dog Park is open from sunrise to sunset, this is a City Ordinance. The Brentwood Parks and Recreation is responsible for all membership, maintenance and repair issues, if you have questions please contact:

Jesse Lynn at jlynn@brnetwoodmo.org

Membership, Maintenance or Repair Issues: email jlynn@brentwoodmo.org

Your Role

Brentwood Dog Park is a “Use at your own risk” facility. This means a self-directed dog park with no day-to-day on-site supervision. To have a dog park that is fun, well maintained, and safe - it is necessary for every member to adhere to the dog park rules and to help enforce the rules by monitoring the park and reporting issues that cannot be handled easily as they arise. This is a collective effort, and success depends on you, the members. Members who fail to comply with the rules or fail to comply with directives from the City of Brentwood Parks and Recreation Department staff regarding outcomes from issue or incident reports may have their membership either temporarily or permanently revoked.

New to the Dog Park?

- Start with short visits and ease your dog into the park atmosphere. Plan visits during off-hours (weekends and weekdays after 4 p.m. are the most crowded). Lengthen your visits as your dog demonstrates that they are enjoying the experience.
- If your dog shows aggressive behavior, take them out of the park. They can endanger other dogs and dog owners. Please do not be afraid to encourage other park users to remove their dog if they exhibit inappropriate behavior.
- Always keep a leash handy.
- Allow your dog to meet and greet other dogs. They need to establish a relationship and feel comfortable with each other.
- Keep dogs away from the entry gate. They may intimidate newly arriving dogs or dash out of the gate.
- Always clean up after your dog. Waste bags and trash cans are provided at the park entrance.

Tips for Success

Entering the Park

Use your leash while outside the dog park. This is a Brentwood ordinance and is also a matter of common courtesy to your fellow dog park users. UNLEASH your dog inside the gated areas while other dogs are not immediately close to your dog. When a leashed dog is greeted by an off-leash dog(s), the leashed dog will not be able to display normal greetings and may feel trapped or threatened. If they feel this way, they may act defensively and a tense situation may arise. When all dogs are off leash, they can display normal dog greeting signals, and they can get away from a pressure situation if they feel the need. This is very important.

Dogs already on site are eager to greet newcomers. If you have a “greeter” you should stay close by and not allow your dog to pile-on or overwhelm the arriving dog. Most dogs need a chance to move through the gangway and adjust to playground energy. If you are just arriving, your dog must be off leash when entering the gangway. For successful greetings – all dogs must have the same freedom to move around as needed. Leashed dogs will feel trapped while the other dogs have free movement.

While in the Park

- Dog Leash: Always keep the leash with you, in case you need to take control of your dog. This is both a Brentwood Dog Park rule and City Ordinance.
- Keep Moving: Most of our dogs like to play close to their humans. When humans congregate for long periods in one spot, so do our dogs. We want to encourage our dogs to run and move. Dog brawls often happen when multiple dogs hang out in the same space; 3-4 dogs piled on top of one another rarely work out well. Help keep things interesting for your pooch, give them new focus.
- Unplug: Membership rules require members always keep an eye on their dog (s) and be within a reasonable proximity in case of need to redirect attention - good time to put your cell phone and other electronic devices away. Treat yourself to a break from the daily stresses. Bond with your dog; enjoy the park.
- Excessive Barking: Some dogs are very vocal and use barking as an invitation to play. Others use barking as a warning to back off. Either way it can be frustrating, but members must understand both. And sometimes dogs don't pick up on the cues either and humans may need to step in. Please re-direct your dog's attention if they fixate on a dog(s) and ruin their play with their barking but first give the dogs a chance to work it out on their own.

Potential Risks

Brentwood Parks and Recreation Department strives to provide a fun, safe environment for you and your dog, however, by using this facility you agree that you understand and assume all responsibility and liability for the risks associated with use of this facility.

Potential risks include but are not limited to:

- Infectious diseases such as rabies, kennel cough, or Lyme disease.
- Dog theft or unlawful capture by other people.
- Dog escapes over or under fences.
- Park vegetation that may have burrs or seeds that could get tangled in a dog's coat or lodged in a dog's feet, ears, or eyes.
- Mosquitoes, ticks, chiggers, fleas or other insects that may be present.
- Dog fights, dog bites and injuries to humans and other dogs.
- Wild animals in the parks such as skunks, raccoons, or stray dogs, all of which might injure or infect your dog.

While it may be tempting to stand back and be a passive observer, all members will have a much more rewarding experience if basic rules are actively observed. Use of the dog park is not a right; it is a privilege. Please do not allow unacceptable or irresponsible behavior to ruin the fun for other members.

Dog Behavior

Know Your Dog

Before you use the dog park, know your dog! Be realistic rather than idealistic when it comes to your dog's temperament.

Be aware that dogs have different play styles, temperaments and physical abilities. Many dogs love rambunctious play, but some dogs suffer from injuries, and some are timid and more aloof. Some dogs have rough play styles and can be overpowering though non-aggressive. Mounting can initiate a potentially harmful situation. If your dog is visibly stressing another dog, please remove your dog to another part of the park. Remember, a little common sense and courtesy goes a long way when the success of the dog park relies on the people who use it. Always respect the wishes of the handler and be prepared to move to another area of the park if your dog is too rambunctious. Leash up and leave if your dog is acting aggressively. Aggressive dogs are not allowed and are not appreciated by others. No matter how cute you think he is and no matter how much you want your dog to be able to use the park, if he's acting aggressively, he needs to be removed.

Time to Go Home?

If your dog is not having fun, it is time to go home. Usually, 30-60 minutes of interaction is enough time to meet an average dog's social, mental and physical needs. If your dog is exhibiting any of these signs of tension and anxiety for longer than 10 minutes, please take your dog home immediately; they are not having fun. Staying longer will not make them more comfortable.

- Crouching on the ground
- Ears Back and Tight Against Head
- Excessive Salivations
- Freezing in Place
- Pacing
- Panting
- Pressing into your body
- Hiding
- Inappropriate Urination
- Stiff Posture
- Stretching
- Slow/Little Movement
- Shallow/Fast Respirations
- Tail Tightly Tucked / Low Tail
- Trembling
- Whining/crying
- Yawning

Learn the 4 “P” Warning Signs

1. Posture: A dog's body language can communicate fear, hostility, or submission. Learn to read and respond to your dog's body language, and others.
2. Packing: More than two or three dogs packed together can lead to trouble. Break it up before it starts by leading your dog to a neutral area at least 30 feet away.
3. Possession: Whether it's you, a ball, or a treat, most dogs will protect what is theirs. Remain aware.
4. Provoking: If your dog is continuously annoying another dog or provoking attention, it's time to leave the park.

What You Can Do to Prevent a Dog Fight

- Pay attention to your dog and be aware of where he is and what he is always doing.
- Stay close enough to control or protect your dog in the face of a potential fight.
- Always keep a collar on your dog so that you have something to grab, if needed.
- It is recommended that you not bring dog toys or balls to the dog park. Toys may provoke possessive or aggressive conduct.
- Leave the Park. Some days it's just a bad mix. Go for a walk or come back later. You and your dog will be better off.

Dog Fight! What Do You Do?

Remove All Spectators

If your dog is not involved, calmly call them to you and get out of the area as quickly as possible. Wading in to help can signal your dog to join the fray!

Remain Quiet

Stay calm and QUIET. Shouting rarely helps and can be misinterpreted as 'excited barking'.

Interrupt the Fight with Noise/Sprays

Attempt to interrupt the fight by blowing on a loud whistle or an air horn. A blast of water from a hose is effective and preferred. Brentwood Dog Park does not condone pepper spray or other harsh chemicals. When the dogs break apart, the owners should immediately leash the dogs. Loop the leashes around the dog's necks and fasten the clasp some distance away.

Interrupt the Fight Physically

As a last resort, the owners of the dogs involved should grab their dogs. First, be sure all other dogs are removed from the immediate area. Next and at the same time, each owner should grab their dog by the hind legs or tail and lift their back ends off the ground. This technique will increase the chances of breaking the dogs apart and lessen the possibility of being bitten. Stay silent or speak only using a calm reassuring voice as you touch your dog. Once you succeed in separating the dogs, face them away from each other and securely attach their leashes. Move the dogs some distance away, sit quietly and assess any injuries.

After the Fight

Adrenaline will be flowing; emotions will be high and over stimulation can result in another altercation. After everyone has calmed down, the owners of the fighting dogs should quietly and unemotionally exchange contact information, as well as vaccination information. ALL owners who have been visiting the dog park during the fight and whose dogs were either involved directly, indirectly, or otherwise engaged emotionally, should take their dogs home for the day. Owners are legally responsible for any injuries inflicted by their dog. Brentwood Parks and Recreation Department is not responsible for negotiating settlements.

What To Do If a Dog Bite Occurs

If a dog bites or injures a human, this must be reported to the Brentwood Police and Brentwood Fire Department immediately by calling 314.644.7100. If a dog bites or injures another dog, the decision to contact the Brentwood Police is at the discretion of the dog owners.

- Immediately secure the biting dog and the victim dog. Leash them and keep separated.
- Any wounds should be washed immediately with clean water.
- Owners of dogs involved should exchange names, addresses, and telephone numbers.
- Owners should then take their dog home or to a veterinarian for necessary medical care. If a bite occurs to a person, consult a physician.

Incident Report

How to File an Incident Report

Report incidents with injuries. It is not necessary to file for fights that do not cause injury. Incident reports can be found at brentwoodmo.org/parks.

Incident Reports

- Valid incident reports include:
 - Serious dog fights, with injury to dog or human
 - Serious human fights, with or without injury
 - Other dog injuries
 - Other human injuries
 - Repeated violations of Brentwood Dog Park rules
- Collect as much info as possible, dog and human names (or description) and witness(s) when available, important to process the report.
- If they are injuries, include photo.
- File a report immediately so that happenings are still fresh in everyone's mind but first stay calm and think through it so that you are as clear as possible with the facts.
- Conditions of membership include the understanding that members use the Brentwood Dog Park at their own risk and that the park is self-directed with no day-to-day management. Both dogs and humans can have a bad day, and Brentwood Parks & Recreation Department does not need to know every time there is a scuffle or disagreement in the park.
- Consider if situation was inevitable dog ruckus (not all dogs play well together – different play styles and energy level, etc.) – no report required — Or — serious aggression or violations – report is appropriate.
- Anonymous reports will be discarded.

Submission Process

Brentwood Parks & Recreation Department management will objectively evaluate case facts without emotion or prejudice. Brentwood Parks & Recreation Department requires everything in writing in effort to protect against potential detail oversight or changing versions of what happened. Once all the information is collected the Brentwood Parks & Recreation Department will decide on the best path forward. Bringing the issue of offending dog's human and asking for better management of their dog while on Brentwood Dog Park grounds is most frequent outcome. Brentwood Parks & Recreation Department has the authority to alter membership status (temporarily suspend or permanently revoke membership), recommend or require outside training or behavioral evaluation, or other actions, as needed. It is a unique and exceptional situation in which a dog is permanently banned from Brentwood Dog Park, but it can happen.

What Brentwood Parks & Recreation Can Do

- Provides structure to process incidents and maintain records.
- Will assist (limited basis) with identifying offending dog(s) by checking log-in records for gate entry system if there is any confusion.
- Will also request positive identification via membership photo before contacting the offending party for additional info.
- Once all involved have submitted requested information, Brentwood Parks & Recreation Department will review and recommend appropriate actions and monitor progress until the case is closed.

What Brentwood Parks & Recreation Cannot Do

Brentwood Parks & Recreation Department is not the dog park supervisor; Brentwood Dog Park is a “Use at your own risk” facility. Brentwood Parks & Recreation Department is not responsible for negotiating financial or legal disputes between members we do monitor how members handle injuries caused by their dog since taking responsibility for dogs’ actions is part of Brentwood Dog Park membership agreement. Sometimes Brentwood Parks & Recreation Department cannot resolve issues because both sides give conflicting accounts and no witnesses are available to resolve discrepancies. It is incumbent upon the person filing the report to provide a reasonable amount of information; If Brentwood Parks & Recreation Department cannot quickly identify all parties via checking our access control system (fob entry), the case cannot proceed.

Example: “It was a black dog” – at time of incident either no black dog on site or a dozen black dogs on site.
