City of Brentwood Launches Nationwide Search for New Police Chief

Brentwood, Missouri – September 29, 2017 – The City of Brentwood, Mo., is conducting a nationwide search to select a new Chief for the Brentwood Police Department.

CPSM/PMG Chief Selection Advantage is assisting the City of Brentwood in this search process.

A task force of Brentwood community members will play a central role in evaluating candidates. This community-based assessment process will involve screening resumes using a standardized methodology, and conducting telephone interviews and in-person interviews using standardized questions and scoring criteria.

Mayor Chris Thornton and City Administrator Bola Akande will interview candidates based on the task force's recommendations.

Dan Fitzgerald retired as Police Chief in May 2017 after 34 years with the City of Brentwood. Major Jim McIntyre is serving as Interim Police Chief. McIntyre joined the Brentwood Police Department 1991 and was promoted to Assistant Chief in 2014.

The Police Chief Profile and job description are available on the City of Brentwood website, www.brentwoodmo.org.
